It can be safely said that The Ägg is unlike any other band around. Could it be they sound like Captain Beefheart's and Fela Kuti's bands in the same rehearsal space? Or do they sound like a North Korean marching band on acid? Or do they sound like 10 guys jamming in some weirdo's basement?

Either way they sound like nothing you have ever heard before. The perfect mixture of chaotic abandon and complete control. The bonfire and the bunsen burner. Space rock, free jazz, afro-beat and probably some other stuff all colliding together in the musical particle accelerator known as The Ägg.

A1: A Version Of An Event (22:14)
